

Biden Sticks to the Playbook

‘I wish [critics of the administration’s jobs bill] had some notion of what it was like to be on the other side of a gun, or [to have] a 200-pound man standing over you, telling you to submit [to rape].’ – Vice President Joe Biden, October 18, University of Pennsylvania

“ . . . at a time when our discourse has become so sharply polarized, at a time when we are far too eager to lay the blame for all that ails the world at the feet of those who think differently than we do, it’s important for us to pause for a moment and make sure that we are talking with each other in a way that heals, not a way that wounds.” – Barack Obama, Jan. 12, 2011, Tucson, Ariz.
