

Bigoted Anti-Bigots

Boxing champion Manny Pacquiao is guilty – of being true to his Catholic faith. The gay-marriage mob is guilty – of the very ugly bigotry it claims to abhor. And left-wing media outlets are guilty – of stoking false narratives that shamelessly demonize religion in the name of compassion.

The attempted crucifixion of Pacquiao this week was fueled by an online army of cultural shakedown artists generously funded by billionaire George Soros and other so-called progressive philanthropists.

Keep reading this post . . .