

Doctorcare

I have finally figured out how to apply the lessons of Obamacare to save my own sinking medical office from bankruptcy.

Under the president's health-care law, the stated goal of which is to provide easy-to-use health insurance for everyone, you – the struggling-to-make-ends-meet patient – will see your skyrocketing mandated premiums used to pay not only for contraception, but also for the medical sequelae of a rude and obese McDonald's customer who chooses to eat one bacon cheeseburger with fries after another. As your physician, I will be paid less and less for treating you even as insurance companies charge you more and more to cover the self-destructive among us. At the same time, Obamacare mandates will shrink your co-pays to the point where I will no longer be able to afford coffee for my nurses.

Keep reading this post . . .