

Off the Cuff: Megan Rapinoe and Politics in Sports

Dear Premium Members,

We've created a new feature just for you, that we think you'll like: audio commentary from yours truly. It's called Off the Cuff, and this will be an ongoing thing.

In addition to my columns and my weekly Q&As, I'll be recording and posting these audio reports where I'll weigh in on a particular news story that has captured my interest.

Today, Megan Rapinoe is on my mind, and you can listen to my thoughts on her (and sports in politics) by clicking on the play (arrow) button below. Once you've listened to it, let me know what you think. Enjoy!
