

Why Not Soak the Rich?

✘ By Victor Davis Hanson

For the last two years, $250,000 in annual income has been an arbitrary line in the sand of a renewed class war. Those above it must have their income taxes raised. Those below it are deemed more virtuous and so deserving of a tax cut.

But who exactly are the “rich”?

More ...